Review: Eighth Grade (2018), Doc 3 p. 14

Kayla Day [...] is a thirteen-year-old in her last week of middle school. Kayla posts YouTube videos on her account called “Kayla’s Korner” where she gives life tips<sup>1</sup> to the minuscule number of viewers she gets. Her videos giving advice about confidence are a stark<sup>2</sup> contrast to her real life where she is so shy that she is voted the “Most Quiet” in her year group. The film follows Kayla as she tries to be more confident, make friends, talk to that boy she likes and generally just survive the last week of middle school.
